

Exceptional cancer care is close to home

“We have everything that’s needed in modern terms for treating cancer.”

— Dr. Jack Schocker
Board Certified Radiation Oncologist
Chairman, Radiation Oncology

Altoona Regional Health System

Center for Cancer Care

A nonprofit community health care system

Altoona Regional has the same cancer-fighting technology as the largest medical centers.

Our Radiation Oncology staff is ranked at the highest level in the U.S. in patient satisfaction, and 97 percent of our patients would recommend our care to their friends and family.*

Which means peace of mind for you, knowing you are receiving exceptional cancer care close to home, where you have the comforting daily support of loved ones and friends.
