Center for Cancer Care

A nonprofit community health care system

At Altoona Regional, the best technology in the world is in the hands of exceptionally talented and experienced people.

Our large staff of cancer specialists has an astounding 600 years of combined experience providing radiation and chemotherapy treatments. Much of their time has been spent working together at Altoona Regional.

No wonder they rank in the top 1 percent in the U.S. in teamwork excellence.*

And outstanding teamwork helps ensure that every treatment we give is effective and safe.
